

Suffer, But Why?

Words & Music:
Tim Hopkins

Voice

Those know-ing sor-row, com-pas-sion al- so know, Hurts we sur-vive can dis-pel our vain re-gret,
Stands not the cross for sal-va-tion and for joy?

Piano

Those in dis-tress sym-pa-thy for o-thers show; So with Our Griefs we en-dure bring a deep-er wis-dom yet; kind-ness and Great is the love which no e-vil can des-troy; Com-fort and

Lord, who could share our hu - man pain,      Died on the Cross, so that strength from our de - so - la - tion flow,      Warmth for our friend, un - der - care for our neigh - bour in des - pair,      No night too dark, but God's love might live a - gain.      Suf - fer, but why? we cry to God a - stand - ing for our foe.

 light is shi - ning there.

bove.      Is pain the price we must pay to know his love?